DEDICATION

1949

It is with extreme pride and enjoyment that the Milestone Staff dedicates the 1949 edition to Mr. Meredith J. Cox of the Chemistry Department.

We know now that life is full of "Molecules" and that he really didn't intend to jump out of the window. He was only trying to make us open our minds and receive the fruits of higher education. His untiring efforts and earnest sincerity shall be reflected in our lives in the making of a better world.

FOREWORD

This year marks the end of college for many veterans. It is hoped that they and the other students will use this volume to refresh their memories of the many difficult days of educational combat.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Since coming to Eastern twenty years ago, Charles "Turkey" Hughes has been one of the main reasons why Eastern has been established as a powerhouse in all Athletic circles.

In addition to being a four letter man at the University of Kentucky—"Turkey" as he is known to his many friends—spent quite a few years playing professional baseball which could be one reason why Eastern produces a winning team on the diamond.

"Turkey" was elected the first president of the newly formed Ohio Valley Conference of which Eastern is a member.

FOOTBALL COACHING STAFF

Tom Samuels who spent a few years at Eastern as assistant coach was appointed head coach in 1947 and for the past two seasons his teams have established one of the best records in Eastern's gridiron history.

Coach Samuels is a former All American from the University of Michigan.

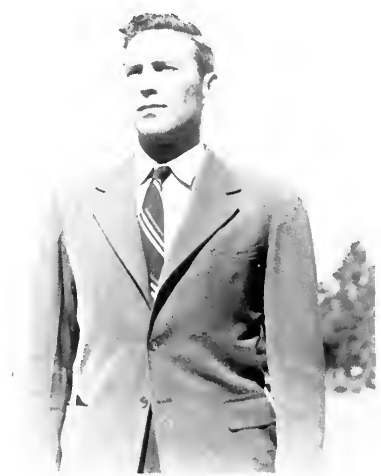

Glenn Presnell who has been backfield coach for the past two seasons has been a perfect reason why the Eastern backfield was feared but respected by all competition.

Coach Presnell is also a former All American from the University of Nebraska.

Fred Darling, line coach, is a former Maroon, all K.I.A.C. and Little All American. Fred's assistance as line coach and his duties of scouting opponents proved invaluable to coach Tom Samuels.

Eastern can be proud of the fact that it placed six men on the All Ohio Valley Conference team—two on the first and four on the second—in its first year of participation in the newly formed conference. The players named for the first team are . . . Paul Wright who also had the distinct honor of playing in the college amateur football game in Hollywood, California, and Joe Hollingsworth was the other Eastern selection for the All O.V.C. team. Placed on the second team was Bob Tankosh, Joe Yanity, Harry Sweesy and Delmas Freeman. Receiving honorable mention were Harold Kittrell, Jack Bahlman, Ed Zoretic and Bill Emmett.

Eastern, 0 — Xavier, 31 . . . In the first football encounter of the 1948 season the Maroons came out on the short end of the score. By playing a much larger and faster team backed with depths of reserves the Maroons were no match for the Musketeers from Cincinnati. "Salty" Owens received a broken leg which kept him out of action the remaining season.

Eastern, 25 — Eastern Illinois, 14 . . . After the sad opening game defeat at the hands of Xavier, the Maroons played their first home game against Eastern Illinois and came out victorious, 25 to 14 . . . While trailing 14 to 7 at intermission a rejuvenated Maroon squad tied the score in the third quarter and then forged ahead in the closing period . . . Freshman halfback Chuck Hertzler tossed three touchdown passes . . . End Bob Tankosh snagged the first and halfback Harry Sweesy caught the second two in pay dirt . . . Ed Zoretic added the finishing touch by galloping 37 yards to the "golden gates."

Eastern, 20 — Marshall, 7 . . . Eastern gridsters really got into the swing of the 1948 campaign by upsetting Marshall . . . The dopesters took a back seat on this one too, after predicting a win for the Thundering Herd . . . Playing before 10,000 fans in Huntington, W. Va., the Maroons scored in the second canto on a pass from Hertzger to Jack Bahlman . . . Bill Emmett scored next and also kicked his second placement of the game . . . In the final quarter, Ed

Zoretic galloped 79 yards for the final score.

Eastern, 6 — Murray, 0 . . . Playing before one of the largest Homecoming crowds in Eastern history, the Mighty Maroons ended a day of festivities by stopping the undefeated "Thoroughbreds" of Murray by 6 to 0 . . . This was Murray's lone defeat of the season . . . It was early in the third quarter when Harry Sweesy romped down the sidelines 44 yards for the only touchdown of the game.

Eastern, 35 — Emory & Henry, 6 . . . Eastern held to one touchdown by Murray the week before . . . not by Emory & Henry . . . Harry Sweesy scored first from the four . . . Sweesy again scored from the 24 . . . Joe Hollingsworth added two more touchdowns by going over from the four and then from the one yard stripe . . . A third quarter safety gave the Maroons two more points . . . Russ Russo hit the line from one yard in the fourth quarter to end the Maroons scoring . . . Coach Tom Samuels used all his traveling squad in this game.

Eastern, 20 — Michigan Normal, 0 . . . The Maroons won their fifth game of the season and their third at home by stopping the Hurons of Michigan State Normal 20 to 0 . . . Pete Nonnemacher scored first in the second quarter by snagging a pass from Chuck Hertzler and racing ten yards for the score . . . Paul Moore ran 49 yards for the second TD. Moore also converted . . . Chuck Hertzler bucked the line from the one yard stripe for the finale.

Eastern, 7 — Morehead, 0 . . . By stopping the Morehead Eagles 7 to 0 the Maroons won their sixth straight contest and by winning kept possession of the famous "Hawg Rifle" symbol of the victorious eleven . . . This win also kept the Maroons in top position of the O.V.C. . . . In the first minutes of the second half, quarterback Bill Emmett ran 57 yards to score the only TD . . . "Bud" Moore kicked the extra point . . . Morehead's only serious threat came in the third quarter after they had fought to the Eastern one yard line and there stopped by a desperate Maroon line.

Eastern, 0 — Evansville, 7 . . . Playing in rain and on a mud packed field the Eastern Maroons lost their first home game of the season to the Purple Aces of Evansville by a score of 7 to 0 . . . The only score of the game was set up by a penalty against the Maroons which moved the ball to the Eastern one. One play later Evansville scored and the ball game was theirs . . . Eastern's fast clicking backfield just couldn't maneuver on the wet field . . . This game was honored by most of the players' dads sitting on the bench with the players. Dads game is an annual grid-iron event at Eastern.

Eastern 32 Northern Illinois 7 . . . After being stopped on muddy field earlier in the season by Evansville mud didn't stop the Maroons from trouncing Northern Illinois 32 to 7 on a muddy field Paul Moore scored first from the four early in the first quarter . . . Hertzler set up the next Eastern TD by intercepting a pass and running 47 yards before being forced out of bounds on the one foot line. Sweesy scored from there On the first scrimmage play in the third quarter Bud Moore galloped 78 yards to pay dirt Sweesy not to be outdone also ran 74 yards for the next TD End Harold Kittrell blocked a punt in the last quarter, picked it up and raced across for the final score.

Eastern 26 Southeastern Louisiana 7 . . . The Maroons avenged a 1947 defeat by stopping a 1948 edition of the "Lions" from Southeastern Louisiana 26 to 7 Ed Zoretic scored first on a pass from Hertzler, running 62 yards for the score . . . Hertzler again passed, this time to Bob Tankosh for the second score . . . Eastern scored the third time on return kick by Russ Russo Ed Zoretic scored again in the final quarter on an intercepted pass . . . This was the final game for 8 graduating seniors: Joe Yanity, Paul Wright, Delmas Freeman, Joe Hollingsworth, Dick Scherrbaum, Jack Cottengin, Mike Jasko and Pete Nonnemacher. . . While losing three games and winning eight coach Tom Samuels had high praises for the Eastern squad. Coach Samuels said this was the best Eastern Maroon team he has ever coached.
